GERMAN PRESS IS SKEPTICAL ABOUT TRADE

(By Associated Press)

COLOGNE, Germany, June 16.—German business interests and the German press are extremely skeptical about the value of the preliminary trade agreement entered into with the Russian soviet republic by the German government, and frankly declare there is little reason to hope for immediate trade with Russia on any considerable scale.

The fact that the soviet republic still insists upon monopolizing all import and export business and had the preliminary trade agreement written with that object in view confuses German business men, who profess to be unable to comprehend the document.

While the soviet republic takes to itself the rights and functions of a business corporation, it also holds self-established international principle that a government cannot be sued, but endeavors to reassure business men who desire to do business with it by including in the preliminary agreement a stipulation that dealings between the Russian government and German firms and individuals in Russia are to be controlled by an arbitration court.

In discussing the agreement the Cologne Gazette says: "This is the first step toward readjustment of business relations, the final step being still far in the future. Nevertheless, it is a step forward and others must necessarily follow. The new agreement means that the two business delegations in Moscow and Berlin must be essentially enlarged and clothed with more authority. An urgent warning should be issued against false hopes of great commercial advantage. The German business men who put their faith in this agreement can have no guarantee of personal or property security, for the interpretation can be so distorted by the special gymnasts of the red republic as to divert wholly its purpose. There is insufficient security offered for German life and property, which will in every instance be at the mercy of bolshevik commissars."

ADVERTISING ON CENSUS PAPERS BRINGS BIG SUM

(By Associated Press) LONDON, June 17.—A new departure in government transactions is the disposal, for a cash consideration, of advertising space on census papers; a proceeding which the official mind would formerly have looked upon with horror.

Even now, a proposal of an enterprising advertising agency to pay the government 11,000 pounds for the use of the backs of 11,000,000 forms to be used in the forthcoming national census, was at first summarily rejected by Dr. Christopher Addison, the health minister. Sir Alfred Mond, first commissioner of works, and a keen businessman, saw the advantage of drawing revenue from this source and persuaded the minister to consent to the innovation.

Some time ago, the same advertising firm offered 50,000 pounds for the use of empty space on ration books, but the authorities would not listen to the proposal.

WARN LEGATIONS NOT TO DEAL WITH DR. SUN YAT SEN

(By Associated Press)

PEKING, June 17.—The foreign office has recently sent a formal notification to all legations in Peking advising them to warn their nationals against entering into any contracts with the Canton government headed by Dr. Sun Yat-sen, which entail hypothecation of any properties which rightfully belong to the Chinese government. "It develops," says the note, "that Dr. Sun Yat-sen, General Chung-min and others in Kwangtung intend to force the provisional bank of Kwangtung to issue a series of notes aggregating $10,000,000 and to put them in circulation, one-half to be pledged to foreign banks for a cash advance. They are also reported to have ordered that the mint or the Canton-Hankow railway be pledged to foreign interests for loans to be used for military purposes."

CINCINNATI HAS THE LAST WORD IN CITY HOSPITALS

(By Associated Press)

CINCINNATI, Ohio, June 17.—That it is almost a pleasure to be ill in Cincinnati is asserted in all seriousness by those who have in mind the blandishments of the new general hospital which the city of Cincinnati has erected on the summit of one of its highest hills.

Today, after several years of occupancy, it is still the object of visiting physicians and surgeons from all parts of the world, who acclaim it as the last syllable in modern hospital construction and marvel at the enterprise of a single citizen, late Dr. T. L. Holmes, should move a municipality the size of Cincinnati to expend some $3,000,000 on a project so purely altruistic.

When a patient enters the general hospital, his clothes are disinfected, cleaned, mended, pressed and hung in dustproof bags pending his discharge. In his ward he finds a sun parlor and a roof garden. He drinks water distilled on the premises and cooled with ice manufactured on the grounds.

CARPENTIER OLDER IN RING EXPERIENCE THAN CHAMPION DEMPSEY

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, June 17.—Georges Carpentier, challenger of Jack Dempsey, is one of the most unusual boxers who ever competed for the heavyweight championship. In temperament and intelligence, there has been none like him among aspirants for heavyweight honors. He will be out weighed by Dempsey when they clash. Other physical measurements may also appear to be to the disadvantage of the Frenchman but the essential item of courage will not be included in these shortcomings.

Carpentier, born in the coal mining region of Lens, France, fought as a youngster of 12 years and progressed steadily through the various weight classes, meeting the best boxers of France, England and America, until he now stands near the pinnacle of pugilistic sport.

A survey of the opponents Carpentier has met in the ring and sketches of several battles in which he received from a count of nine to outpoint or knock out his rivals in subsequent rounds convinces one of his ring courage. He has fought among others Joe Jeannette, Frank Klaus, Billy Papke, Jeff Smith, Harry Lewis, Bombardier Wells, Joe Beckett and Gunboat Smith. Some of them he met when a youth in his late teens. His fight with Frank Klaus and Billy Papke when he was only 18 are declared to have been the most grilling in his career. In victory or defeat throughout his ring campaign, Carpentier has been guided by Francois Decamps toward the heavyweight championship goal which he will endeavor to reach at Boyle's Thirty Acres in Jersey City on July 2. The list of opponents Carpentier has met is more impressive than that of Jack Dempsey's rivals. In ring experience, Carpentier is by far the older.

AMUSEMENTS

DOUGLAS M'LEAN AT THE BUTLER TODAY

Douglas MacLean's famous uniform which he wore in "23 1/2 Hours Leave" makes its second and probably last appearance in "The Bookie's Return," his latest picture, in which he and Doris May, his adorable leading lady, will be seen at the Butler today. When it was decided that the young star was to appear in another comedy in which he was to portray the role of one of Uncle Sam's "four million," the well-known olive drab was still included in his wardrobe. In order to convert it from the spick and span uniform of his training camp days to the battle-scarred uniform of the returning veteran it was necessary to subject it to considerable rough treatment, but it is the same garment which shared honors with MacLean and Doris May in their premiere production.

"The Bookie's Return" is a humorously interesting story of a young returned soldier and his exciting experiences in adjusting himself to civilian life after two years in the service, and his struggles with the horrors of demobilization and peace. Added to the program will be a two-reel comedy, "A Shotgun Wedding."

Tomorrow, House Peters in "The Great Redeemer," and a Mack Sennett comedy, "The Fireside Brew."

Monday, "A Small Town Idol," strongest in Europe," says Washington Vanderlip, thus confirming the suspicion that it needs a disinfectant.
